IMPORTANT LEGAL & PRACTICAL ARRANGEMENTS

This is a simple guide to arrangements that apply to me and where the important paperwork can be found.

LEGAL ARRANGEMENTS THAT APPLY TO ME

- Legal arrangements I have, if any:

- Who deals with or helps me with these arrangements:

WHERE THE PAPERWORK IS KEPT

- Where the original documents or paperwork are kept:

- Who knows where to find them:

WHO CAN ACT OR SPEAK FOR ME

Some people may have a formal role in helping with decisions, benefits or legal matters. Not every arrangement will apply to everyone.

FORMAL ARRANGEMENTS

- Appointee, deputy, attorney or other formal arrangement, if applicable:

- Name of the person / organisation and what their role covers:

ADVOCACY OR REPRESENTATION

- Advocate, representative or other person who supports me:

- What they help me with / when they should be contacted:

PLANS, DECISIONS & IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS

I may have plans or documents that people need to know exist. This page records where to find them rather than copying private details here.

PLANS OR DECISIONS

- Advance plan, decision, care-related document or other important arrangement, if applicable:

- Where the paperwork or a copy is kept:

OTHER IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS

- Other legal or practical documents people may need to find:

- Where they are kept / who has a copy:

INSURANCE, WARRANTIES & COVER

Before repairing, replacing or buying something new, check whether it is already covered by insurance, a warranty, guarantee or another protection plan.

WHAT MAY BE COVERED

- Items, equipment, travel, home or other things that may have cover:

- Who usually deals with the insurance, warranty or cover:

WHERE THE PAPERWORK IS KEPT

- Where insurance, warranty, guarantee or protection-plan paperwork is kept:

- Renewal or expiry information to check, if relevant:
